ORDER:

In the reference read above the Director General & Inspector General of Prisons & Correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has stated that the Department of Prisons is one of the Oldest branches of the Government and forms an important link in the Criminal Justice System. Criminals are kept in Prisons for terms ranging upto life imprisonment. The composition of Prison has undergone a sea change over the years. In the past there was not much awareness among the prisoners and most of them were disciplined and had respect for authority. The inmates of the present day prisons are very defiant, indisciplined and violent. Because of the vast increase in the nature of the crime as well as its dimensions, unconventional prisoners like extremists, terrorists, fanatics, ISI Agents, etc., are being admitted to the Prisons. Dealing effectively with such kind of prisoners has become a difficult task for the officers of the department. The very philosophy of these prisoners is to rebel against the Government and if possible wage war against the State and they are a determined lot, who are not easily amenable for any discipline.

2. He has further stated that in order to control and reform such prisoners, the officers of this department are forced to invent new strategies and put them into action to deal with the difficult situations. This pre-supposes a meeting of the officers at various levels, exchange views with each other, plan strategies and execute them. Thus, there arises a necessity to have a brain storming sessions among the senior officers of the Department in an informal set up. Nothing is more appropriate for this kind of action than a RETREAT.

3. The Director General & Inspector General of Prisons & Correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has therefore requested the Government to permit the Department to conduct RETREAT this year i.e. 2010 and also every year and to accord administrative sanction for incurring an expenditure of Rs. 6.00 lakhs by his office as well as by Regional and Unit Offices on lodging, boarding, purchase of stationary, miscellaneous items, course material and for making seating arrangements etc.

4. Government after careful examination, hereby accord administrative sanction of Rs.6.00 lakhs (Rupees Six Lakh Rupees only) for conducting RETREAT-2010 in Prisons Department from the available funds under the Head of Account “2056-Jails, MH 001-Direction and Administration, SH (01)-Headquarters Office, 200-Other Administrative Expenditure (Non-Plan)”

5. The Director General & Inspector General of Prisons & Correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad is informed that there is no need to issue standing orders to incur the expenditure upto Rs.6.00 lakh every year and also requested to send a report regarding the particulars of expenditure incurred and decisions of the RETREAT while sending such proposals in future.

6. The order issues with the concurrence of Finance (Exp.Home) Department in their U.O.No.25825/340/Expr.Home/2010, dated 21-09-2010.
